January 28, 2024 Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: Dt 18:15-20; Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9; 1 Cor 7:32-35; Mk 1:21-28

Jesus Rebukes the Unclean Spirit in the Synagogue, James Tissot 1886-1894

him!" and removed the evil spirit from the man. All were amazed at the healing of this man.

Life can sometimes look like the synagogue in Capernaum. We are living as disciples of Christ when we suddenly recognize evil around us — through events in our lives, temptations we are enduring, or by falling into sin. It can distract us, consume our attention, or even cause us to despair. In these moments of trial, we must remember the Healer in our Gospel today. Recall His words, "Quiet, come out of Him!" Jesus has the power and authority over evil, for He has conquered sin and death. He also has the power and authority over us. And when we invite Him to have that authority, He will heal us and help us persevere.

Today, we are reminded that God is in control and that we want Him to be in control. He is the loving Healer Who will work miracles in our lives if we give Him the authority to do so.

They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. (Mark 1:22)

Question of the Week:

Adults: What can you tell others about Jesus with the most assurance?

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Jan. 28 - Feb. 3, 2024

Since 1974, this annual celebration focuses on the value of Catholic education, typically through Masses, open Catholic Schools houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. This year’s theme is “Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community.” This logo symbolizes the united community of Catholic schools—not a building or an institution, but people of faith serving God and others. No Catholic school can fulfill its educational goal alone.

SODALITY DAY OF REFLECTION

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PRAYERS!

Our Confirmation candidates spent last weekend at the Via West Retreat Center in Cupertino which provided them an opportunity to deepen their understanding of the sacrament of Confirmation and its significance in their faith journey. They spent time involved in group activities and discussions meant to foster a sense of community amongst the group. It allowed them to reflect on their beliefs and commitment to our Christian faith. Thank you to Nancy Becerra and the Confirmation Core Group for successfully providing the candidates this important time for their personal growth and discernment. These young people will be confirmed on Saturday, February 10, 2024 by Bishop William Justice.
